

St. Stephen's Art Show Announces Free Entrance & Community Main Stage

“We encourage the entire community to get the “Flock” out there!”

Miami— December 21, 2022— Today under the Oak Grove, The St. Stephen's Art Show announced the commitment to FREE entrance of the Art Show & MakersFest, February 18 to 22, 2023, with a grand gesture: FREE entrance is underwritten by the weekly artisanal and farmers market fundraisers help on the front lawn of St. Stephens Church, center Grove.

“Our parish gave us resounding approval to sponsor the $3 door fee with our weekly artisanal market series fundraisers, voluntary donations at the show welcome of course! said Pastor Willie Allen Faiella. Despite our own struggles as a not-for-profit rebuilding from quarantine and shit diens, we are proud to pay it forward. Anytime the community can gather, outdoors and support local artisans who were hit even harder it is important.”

The St. Stephen's Art Show will continue its combination of international art and community focus, featuring Local Makers of Music, Traditional Festival Food Makers, and Fine Crafts nestled within the larger traditional, Fine Arts Show. Unique products have been included in the initiative to help Makers become known at St. Stephen's within the Oak Grove and our beautiful campus nooks and crannies, all during the Grove Arts Festival Weekend.

Many customers have already benefitted from our weekly markets and Artisanal fairs. The local Makers and Artisans industry was hit hard by the COVID closures of restaurants, bars, markets, and festivals. On Presidents Day Weekend 2021 St. Stephen's honored the traditional Art Show weekend with a safe, 30-artist showcase and Farmers Market in cooperation with COVID restrictions.

“The feedback from the 2021 Art & Makers showcase was tremendous from our artisans, artists and audience alike; said Daisy Holcombe, director of The St. Stephen's Art Show. It was a delight to give free access to tourists and locals as well as offer a variety of products, including but not limited to our international Fine Art.”
